

The Murky Business of Ease of Doing Business Ranking

In a major revelation, Paul Romer, the chief economist of World Bank apologized to Chile for changes to the Ease of Doing reports methodology which conveyed the wrong impression of the business environment under the socialist regime of President Michelle Bachelet. Chile's overall ranking fluctuated between 25th and 57th between the capitalist and socialist regimes. Chile scored poorly on a newly introduced index in paying taxes which resulted in slipping of their ranking from 33rd in the world to 120th for that index. Read more...

53 development experts call the bluff on IMF's social protection

Over fifty renowned economists, academics and development experts from across the world recently wrote to the Executive Board of the International Monetary Fund to express concern over the IMF "independent" evaluation of The IMF and social protection, and its recommendations approved by IMF Board in July 2017. Read more...

CSOs call for accountability and disclosure from AIIB on its FI Investments

Representatives from CSOs from all over the world have written a letter this week to the AIIB, drawing urgent attention to rising concerns of AIIB's investments through Financial Intermediaries. Read more...

Banking on Accountability and Transparency

PSBs are not just financial institutions. They have a broader mandate. Neither should they be aimed at only profit-maximisation, nor should their performance be judged solely based on that. Thus emerges the need for comprehensive banking policy. Read more...

Thousands have asked their MPs to not to legislate FRDI Bill, have you? Visit repealfrdi.net to know more.

Centre for Financial Accountability, New Delhi
www.cenfa.org

To subscribe, write to:
newsletter@cenfa.org

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list