World Bank Guidance Leaves Rights Loopholes

The World Bank has spent the past four years overhauling the rules it applies to prevent or mitigate social and environmental harm from the development projects it finances. But human rights are all but absent in its new rules. Read more...

After Mahapadav, The Struggle to Intensify if Govt Doesn't Listen to Us: Tapan Sen

Tapan Sen, General Secretary, Centre of Indian Trade Unions (CITU), talks about the massive mobilisation of workers on the final day of the mahapadav in Delhi. He tells Newsclick that the workers struggle is not ending with this movement, and about how it will materialise in the future. He also speaks about the reasons why the media is blacking out this mass sit-in happening in the heart of Delhi. Watch here...
