

Why Should We Care About Development Finance? ...because it's our money!

Volume 5, Issue 24, December 10, 2021

Mr Rajnish Kumar's Book Raises More Questions Than Answers-Part 1

The book by the former Chairman of SBI is very different from "No Regrets" written by another former Chairman, Mr. D.N. Ghosh. It's an interesting and quick read.

Beautiful comments on the book cover by Ratan N. Tata, Mukesh D. Ambani, and Uday Kotak appreciating the book published by Penguin vividly indicate the side he has taken. Read more.

Mr Rajnish Kumar's Book Raises More Questions Than Answers- Part II

In the banking industry, the bank instructs that the bankers (ordinary officers) should not get close to borrowers, they should not accept gifts or favours. What about the executives? No queries are raised! Black stone estimated that the losses incurred by Yes Bank were around Rs.45000 crores. Still, they were willing to invest in it, taking up a 20% share. HDFC was also willing to invest Rs.1000 crore.

Read more.

Global Financial Architecture and the BRICS Bloc with Sunanda Sen

Check out the latest episode of 'You, Me and the Economy' with Sunanda Sen speaking about the Global Financial Architecture and the BRICS Bloc.

Listen here.

Centre for Financial Accountability, New Delhi

<https://www.cenfa.org>

To subscribe, write to:

newsletter@cenfa.org

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list