

Why Should We Care About Development Finance? ...because it's our money!

Volume 5, Issue 28, January 07, 2022

From People's Bank to a Corporate Slave – Where is the SBI headed?

The recent deal between Adani Capital and the State Bank of India has raised eyebrows. State Bank of India was known as the people's bank, and it could rightly claim that it was 'the largest bank serving the smallest man.' Since the year 1991, things have changed. Small credit in SBI has declined. SBI has been fined a few times by the Reserve Bank of India, which was earlier unheard of. Read more.

Reading the Rhetoric: G20, its Politics & What the 2023 Presidency Means for India

Founded in 1999, in the wake of the Asian Financial Crisis, G20's formation was announced by the finance ministers of the Group of Seven (G7) as the forum for international cooperation on financial and economic questions and was supposed to act as a platform to unite finance ministers and central bankers from twenty of the world's largest established and emerging economies. Read more.

Podcast: Economy, Economics and the Planetary Boundaries with Sonal Raghuvanshi

Check out the latest episode of 'You, Me and the Economy' with Sonal Raghuvanshi speaking about Economy, Economics and the Planetary Boundaries.

Listen here.

Centre for Financial Accountability, New Delhi
<https://www.cenfa.org>

To subscribe, write to:
newsletter@cenfa.org

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list