Why Should We Care About Development Finance?...because it’s our money!

Volume 6, Issue 03, July 15, 2022

The Economy This Week!

Banking was devotional gift and so was the Banking Amendment Bill on our talks expected to come up in the monsoon session of the Parliament. Yes, some talk we thought were gone but we不必 worry the Banking law Development Bill is going to pave the way for the promotion of Indian banking system. The amendment contains a full modernization concept has been made. It’s a conversation for a conversation. For more details, see the Banking Amendment Bill on our talks expected to come up in the monsoon session of the Parliament.

In other news, India to take over China as the most populated country very soon. Will we be able to gain anything from the increased and young labour force, or will the job crisis only worsen?

Also presenting our new video interview series, On Second Thought. In the first episode, senior journalist D. Ravi Kant reviews the 12th Ministerial Conference of WTO.

LIC should run the IDBI Bank and not some fortune seekers!

In the UK’s right now, roadshows by our government to sell IDBI Bank are happening, soliciting prospective buyers. Fortunately, the bill that will allow more foreign buyers to sell off the PSU Banks is expected to be the coming monsoon session of the parliament. Soon the cap on foreign equity holdings in banks will be gone and the sale of banks will commence.
